INVITATIONS | "I invite anyone who reads this who is not (yet) Catholic to meet up with me for half an hour to see if you wouldn't be better off in the full communion of the Catholic Church. If you're someone who doesn't go to confession full stop, or you haven't been for longer than is good for you, I invite you to come and meet up with me for half an hour to talk about it." Fr Daniel.

GIVING | Going by our average Sunday attendance, if donations were to rise by £5 per person per week, we would be able to cover our total expenditure entirely via the offertory, so that other income (eg from hall rental) could be more usefully employed. If we can't get to that, then we need donations to increase by £2 per person per week if we are to meet our ordinary outgoings without using up our reserves. There are a number of ways to make that happen, not least by using Gift Aid if you don't already do so.

PRE-REFORMATION ENGLISH CHORAL MUSIC | Saturday 27 June, 11am at Blackfriars: Votive Mass of St Alban. The music is: Robert Fayrfax (1464-1521), Missa Albanus. All welcome. (NB There will be no 9am Mass &c that morning).

ORDINATION TO THE DIACONATE | Eric Lobsinger, a member of our parish who was received into the Catholic Church at Holy Rood in 2022, has been in formation and training for the priesthood over the past three years. Prior to being received into the Church, he was an Anglican clergyman for twelve years. His ordination to the diaconate will happen on Saturday 13 June, 10.30am at Westminster Cathedral in London. All are welcome to attend the ordination Mass to support Eric and the three other men who will be ordained to the diaconate. Eric will serve his first Mass as a deacon on Sunday 14 June at the 11.15am Mass at Holy Rood Church. Please keep Eric, his wife Alice, and their three children in your prayers at this time.

SAINT ALBAN, 20 JUNE | Saint Alban, 'born in fertile Britain's land', suffered during the reign of Diocletian and Herculian. Whilst still a pagan, he gave shelter to a Christian priest who was fleeing from his persecutors. When Alban saw the holy man spending all his time in prayer and vigils, he was suddenly touched by the grace of God. He was moved to follow the priest's example, and began to emulate his faith and devotion. In the course of time he thoroughly imbibed the priest's salutary teaching, renounced the darkness of idolatry and wholeheartedly professed the Christian faith. Soon, however, word got out that Alban was sheltering a Christian, and when the soldiers arrived to search the house, Alban dressed himself in the priest's clothes and gave himself up in the place of his guest and teacher. The judge was incensed that Alban should have surrendered himself in place of his guest; and when he refused to offer sacrifice to idols, ordered him to be scourged, in the hope that he could shake his constancy by torture. But Alban bore all his severe torments with joyful patience for Christ's sake. When the judge saw that no torture could break him or induce him to repudiate his faith in Christ, he ordered him to be beheaded. Saint Alban suffered on the twenty-second day of June near the city of Verulamium. When the peace of Christian times was restored, a beautiful church worthy of his martyrdom was built. In the same persecution Julius and Aaron suffered, citizens of the city of Legions, and many others of both sexes throughout the land.—from Bede's Ecclesiastical History.
